DRIVERS' EDUCATION

In order to take Driver's Ed in Connecticut you must:

- Be 16 years old or older.
- Have your CT learner's permit. For the driving portion.
- You may start classroom without a permit.

Your Connecticut driver's education course will cover information, such as:

- Basic driver safety regarding motorcyclists, bicyclists, and pedestrians.
- Connecticut road signs and what they mean.
- The physiological and psychological consequences of alcohol and other drug abuse while driving.

Your parent or legal guardian is also required to complete 2 hours of parent training with you as part of your Connecticut Driver's Ed requirements. These hours are included in the classroom instruction component of your course. If you are over the age of 18 you are not required to have a Parent attend.

DRIVER ROAD TRAINING

The DMV requires a minimum of eight (8) hours of on the road training before you are able to test for your driver's license. As of August 1, 2008 all students are required to have 32 additional behind the wheel hours with a driving school instructor or a parent. Please log those additional hours in a notebook.

The road training is scheduled in two (2) hour time slots. All pick up and drop off for driving is through the Glastonbury Location. During Covid If for some reason we are delayed, you will receive the full two hours of road training. Please be you wait at least 15 minutes in the building or in the parking lot for your instructor Please call us if you are going to be delayed for any reason. .

Driver training can be booked by phone or in the office. You will receive a confirmation call. Please be sure that we have a number so we may leave a message. If you do not have a answering machine please give us the best way for us to contact you. If we can not confirm the appointment the lesson may get canceled.

Please plan to pay the instructor at the beginning of each lesson in cash or checks no credit cards are accepted.
